SEE SISTER SAIL

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Anderson went to San Francisco Saturday to bid bon voyage to Mrs. Anderson's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Celio of Nevada City. They sailed on the new steamship Malola for Hawaii, and from there will visit South America and Cuba, returning to New Orleans and completing the trip by motor. This is a pleasure voyage and they are taking their automobile so that they may more fully enjoy the places visited and tour the south on their return, the trip occupying three months.

Mrs. Frank M. Hall and small son, who were injured some time ago near Lodi returned home Sunday and are both well and in splendid condition. The little boy unlatched the door of the auto and fell out and Mrs. Hall jumped out after him, both suffering injuries to their heads which kept them in the hospital for several weeks.

Valentine Party

One of the pretty parties of the season was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Field, when they entertained a group of friends and neighbors. The Valentine colors and theme prevailed in decorations and accessories. Six tables of bridge were played. Mrs. Walker Vaughn and Ralph H. Hyde holding high score and Mrs. F. V. Perrott and Percy Dunlap were awarded the consolations. The selection of partners was made by means of clever limericks descriptive of the various guests. The Valentine motif was carried out in heart shaped sandwiches and whipped cream pastry hearts and the favors were dainty bouquets.

Weekly Lectures

The attendance at the first meeting at the high school on Monday evening was gratifying to those who are sponsoring the meetings. The second meeting of the series will be held on Wednesday evening, February 20, at the High School at 7:30.

Those in attendance last Monday evening were well pleased with the director, Prof. Lundkvist. He is well prepared to present the subjects which have been selected for discussion. The subject for next Monday is "Problems of Rural Life." Opportunity will be given to ask questions and take part in the discussion. Admission is free and more can be accommodated.

RANCH HOME BURNED

The house on the ranch property of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hummel on Los Gatos-Almaden road, near the cemetery, was burned Sunday morning.

The house was occupied by Lin Klein, formerly of Sunny Oaks avenue. Although the building was insured, Mr. Hummel will lose a considerable amount. He also had some furniture in the place although most of that was in the house which they had but recently rented in Campbell. None of the furnishings were saved, but a piano and a couple of chairs.

The C. H. Hornbeck and Krohn autos collided at the intersection of First and Rincon avenues Wednesday with quite a shock. Harry Whitehouse carries a skinned nose as a result and Mrs. Krohn was somewhat injured but not seriously.

Grange to Hold Plant Exchange

Mrs. Jessie McChesney lecturer of Orchard City Grange read a short history of St. Valentines Day at the grange Tuesday evening. Steven Merrill sang two songs with Dr. Merrill at the piano. All was listened to with pleasure by those present.

The lecturer made a report of the last years' work which has been a very successful year in the grange and the lecturers hour is looked forward to as a time of enjoyment and instruction.

The expected talk by Theron Tracy on Port San Jose was missed as Mr. Tracy was suddenly called to Salt Lake City.

Mrs. McChesney announced that Mr. Morton a poultry expert would speak at the next grange. Further notice will appear elsewhere.

Mr. H. G. Keesling talked on garden week which comes in April. He also announced the annual banquet of Flower Lovers' Club to be held in Chamber of Commerce Hall, San Jose, Feb. 25, at 6:30 p. m.

Mr. Coupland in a speech under the head of co-operation brought out many interesting thoughts.

It was decided to have a plant exchange at the next grange meeting, February 28. This annual exchange of plants is an interesting and very useful practice of Orchard City Grange. Anyone having flowering or fruit plants or bulbs to spare can bring them to the grange that night and nearly always find something to carry home in place of them that will be an addition to their garden. Members should remember to bring plants and to exchange at the next meeting.

Communications were received from Congressman Free and Sen. Shortridge saying they would give careful attention to the Mexican labor question which comes up under the Box bill.

The local Choral society went to Los Gatos Wednesday evening for a joint rehearsal for Old Settlers' Day music. Thursday evening both societies held final rehearsal in the auditorium and Director Benjamin Edwards feels certain of a good rendition next Wednesday.

Les Bracket this week dressed up the flag poles in readiness for the holiday and Artist McQueen is giving the hotel a new coat of tan for the summer.

Mrs. J. H. Neff and daughter, Miss Winnie went to Los Angeles yesterday to be gone two months.

Gram School Notes

The Girls' Glee Club has been lately organized at the school by Miss Nielson. They have adopted black sweaters and white skirts, with a gold lyre for insignia making a very effective outfit. They are doing some good work in their singing. Tuesday they entertained the Kiwanis Club at their luncheon. Last Friday they with Mr. Townner's band gave a program to the school. This included two songs by the Glee Club, a reading by Gladys Nelson, violin solo by Chester Blyther, clarinet duet by Byron Hall and Kermit Van Every.

Members of Santa Clara's intermediate band came over to help out on the program. Mr. Townner urged fourth and fifth grades to consider joining the band at this time.

Valentine day was celebrated at school with boxes in every room and last week the school was visited by Humpty Dumpty the clown sent out by the Dairy Council of California. He entertained the children royally with sleight of hand, etc., and put over some good lessons on health. Everybody enjoyed him.

Friday afternoon at assembly, Mr. Abbott presented prizes won by different rooms for selling Christmas seals. Miss Nielson's room won first prize of two dollars and a half. Miss McCracken's second prize of one dollar and a number of other rooms won the health thermometers for selling twelve dollars worth of stamps.

Mrs. Nora McMurdo of San Jose will address the Country Woman's Club next Monday at 3 o'clock at the library. The subject is "Life-Comments," and an invitation is extended to all who are interested in current topics to be present. Mrs. McMurdo was at one time in charge of Hale's library and now has a lending library of her own in Burton Laughlin's Stationary Store on E. San Antonio.

Cow testing last year with a new high mark, with a gain of 7 per cent over 1926. This is according to G. E. Gordon, dairy specialist in the agricultural extension service of the University of California. There were 70,973 cows under test in thirty-five counties of the State, says Gordon in his annual report to Director B. H. Crocheron. During 1927 there were 481 meetings held in forty-one counties regarding dairying, with an attendance of 21,191 persons. There were 5,139 farms in forty-five counties which adopted improved dairy practices.

Oranges produced in the Oroville district, Butte county, this season sold for an average f. o. b. price of $5.07 in Eastern and other markets. This was announced a few days ago by Lorin Huffman, manager of the Superior California Citrus Exchange, who is closing up his records for the season. Orchard production increased 25 per cent this year, he said. Eighty-one cars were sent by the Butte County Citrus Association at Thermalito, and the P. C. Drescher Association of Palermo twenty-three. Both are members of the citrus exchange. The past year is regarded as one of the most successful in recent years.

"Kern county is thoroughly aroused to the danger threatening its growing agricultural interests, especially cotton culture, which is inherent in the Box Bill now before Congress," says Alfred Harrell, owner and editor of The Bakersfield Californian, published at Bakersfield. "Our cotton crop is absolutely dependent upon Mexican labor," says Mr. Harrell, "for I think it safe to say that 85 per cent of all the itinerant labor employed on Kern county's 28,000 acres of cotton is Mexican. If our present supply of Mexican workers is suddenly cut off, the cotton growers will be put out of business."

Thirty-eight vacation camps for agricultural club members were held last year by the University of California agricultural extension service. These were attended by 1154 boys, 716 girls and 470 adults, who acted as leaders.

Boys and girls engaged in agricultural club work under the direction of the University of California agricultural extension service numbered 7300 in 1927, as compared with 5032 in 1926.

Maid: "But, mum, I did notice—it was just four o'clock."

One hundred and twenty six acres of asparagus has been planted on the S. O. Houghton place, near Van Nuys, and is expected to be ready for harvest by the first of March. The work of preparing this large field of asparagus has been going on since early in December, at which time the ground was rolled and the old seed stalks disced into the soil. As the young shoots appear, the crop must be kept under constant cultivation, with an occasional run of water between the rows. The crop is usually ready for harvest early in March, and cutting continues until the middle of July. In addition to the asparagus tract, Mr. Houghton also has a large acreage of spinach.

Asparagus growers of Mendota, Fresno county, are enthusiastic over their prospects for the coming season, which will open about February 15. Of the 1,010 acres planted, it is said all will be developed sufficiently to cut this year. On account of the early cuttings the growers expect to put their product on the New York and Boston markets far ahead of any produced in other parts of the country, and being able to do this they will receive fancy prices for several months.

For the fourth successive year Watsonville has won the national first prize for the best observance of National Apple Week in cities of 50,000 population and under, Mayor C. H. Baker, chairman of the Watsonville committee, was notified by a telegram from the national organization last week. In 1924 Watsonville competed with cities of 10,000 or less, but for the last three years has been matched with cities of 50,000, many of which competed strongly for the award.

California Ranch News

The annual Picnic Day celebration at the University Farm, Davis, will be held on April 21, according to announcement at the University of California. High school contests will feature Picnic Day this year.

A new text, "Truck Crop Plants," has been written by D. H. A. Jones and Dr. J. T. Rosa of the Division of Truck Crops, University of California. Last year's truck crop production in California was more than $61,000,000 in value; and as the new text treats of the plants rather than cultural methods, it is believed it will be of great value to producers.

More than thirty carloads of Nevada honey, valued at $125,000 to $150,000, were shipped to California markets in the past year. This is according to George G. Schweles of the Nevada Quarantine Department. A strong demand prevails for Nevada alfalfa and clover honey. Schweles says there are 100,000 colonies of bees in the state, owned by 190 individuals. The industry centers around Yerington, Nevada.

At a meeting held in Red Bluff last week of wool growers from all sections of the State, disorganization of the Northern California Wool Warehouse Company, with headquarters in Red Bluff, and the formation of a new organization to be known as the Mutual Wool company, with headquarters in San Francisco, was announced. Under the new plan, the warehouse at Vina, in which for several years has been stored the wool from throughout this section of the State, will be abandoned and hereafter all wool formerly gathered at that point will be shipped direct to San Francisco.

The dairy cows of California contribute an average of 60 cents each, per day, to the creation of new capital. As the figures are extended they become more impressive. There are 598,000 dairy cows in California and the daily value of the product of which they are the source is more than $350,000. This means over $10,000,000 of new money each month; more than $130,000,000 for the year. The money goes quickly into local channels of trade. The dairy farmer receives his check at intervals of not more than thirty days. Often payment is made each week and in many instances every day.

The report of the Riverside County Cow-Testing Association for the month of December shows forty-three herds tested, composed of 1797 cows. Of this number there were 532 cows producing an average of forty-seven pounds of butter fat each. The average milk production for the month was 180 pounds, and the average butter-fat production was 35.1 pounds. May, a purebred cow owned by W. F. Eldridge of Corona, stood first in this class, with an average milk record of 1662 pounds, and butterfat production of 89.9 pounds. The highest single record was made by a grade cow, Beauty H., owned by E. K. Southfield. She produced 2266 pounds of milk, and 95.2 pounds of butter-fat.

The twentieth annual dairy industry short course will be held at the College of Agriculture this year from February 6 to 16. This short course will include instruction in five fields of dairy manufacturing, market milk, cheese making, butter making, ice, cream manufacture and bacteriology. Co-operating with the faculty of the college in the instruction, are State and county officials, with representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture, and men of the commercial dairy industry field. These courses are of interest to every one engaged in dairy manufacture, and are open to all who have had some experience in a dairy plant, or in a dairy or health department laboratory.

Grape shippers in San Joaquin county were saved approximately $400,000 a year through the refusal of the United States courts in San Francisco to grant an injunction restricting the Interstate Commerce Commission from ordering a freight-rate reduction on fruits shipped east from California, according to J. C. Sommers, traffic manager of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce. Sommers based his estimate on an annual movement of 10,000 cars of grapes from San Joaquin county.

George R. Wilson, assistant entomologist for the California Department of Agriculture, has been ordered to Florida by G. H. Hecke, director, to study the dictyospermum scale and the possibility of its being introduced into California on palms grown out of doors in Florida. Wilson's study will be made in co-operation with the Florida State plant board and is to determine if quarantine restrictions against Florida palms should be ordered. The scale now exists in some greenhouses and lath houses in California.

East through the Sunny South

—Sunset Limited, famed 'round the world, offers a journey of rare attraction.

Southern Pacific's colorful Sunset Route lies along the nation's southern border. Through California's orange lands, across fertile mesas and broad plains and along placid Louisiana bayous to New Orleans. All the way the romance and historical interest of the Southwest and the Old South. See Apache Trail highway—one day side trip in Arizona.

It costs no more to go east this way to New York. From New Orleans, continue by train or enjoy the delightful ocean voyage to New York aboard Southern Pacific's steamship (meals and berth on the ship included in your fare).

Over this route, "Sunset Limited" carries you swiftly and comfortably. Its appointments are complete in every detail. Also the "Argonaut" from Los Angeles over this route.

Go this way and return some other Southern Pacific route if you wish—Overland Route, Chicago to San Francisco; Golden State, the direct line from Chicago to Los Angeles and San Diego; or Shasta Route, west over northern lines and south from Seattle and Portland.

Read the interesting Sunset Route booklet describing the trip in detail. Ask for a copy and for further details.
